Hush. What's your greatest fear? It's criminal profiler Ivy Dunlap's job to unravel the psyches of the most dangerous men alive. None haunts her dreams more than the killer who took her son's life sixteen years ago, then silently disappeared into the dark.

Hush - Anne Frasier

Anne Frasier released the thriller Hush in 2002 and it went on to become a bestseller alongside many other bestsellers among her 24 books published so far. Frasier writes a serial killer with the best of them, just as creepy and absorbing as Thomas Harriss Silence of the Lambs and as tense I love serial killers.

Hush by Anne Frasier - Goodreads

This was Frasier's book following her debut novel (writing as Anne Frazier) HUSH released the prior year in 2002. That said, I wasn't all that impressed by SLEEP TIGHT (2003). I liked Frasier's writing style but in the final analysis I found the novel to be a generally entertaining but forgettable reading experience, certainly not on the same playing field as the Jude Fontaine series of books.
