Sympathy for the Devil - By Tim Pratt. Introduction. Tim Pratt. I'm a big fan of the Devil. I like stories about the Adversary in all his incarnations. Most of the stories in this book are about the Capital-D-Devil in his various guises, from the fiddle-playing trickster of Charles de Lint's "Ten for the Devil" to the hard-nosed ...

Sympathy for the Devil - Wikipedia

Sympathy for the Devil is a well thought out anthology, with an eclectic mix of stories all devil-related. The mix of classic and modern authors showed how the imagery of the devil has infiltrated our culture and that, despite our high tech lifestyle, the basic primaeval fears remain the same.

The Devil. Satan. Lucifer. His Satanic Majesty. Is it just me or is the devil one of the most interesting characters in history available to write a short story about? So much possibility and yet, in many of the stories in "Sympathy for the Devil" he falls so short of the mark. What should have been a 5 star read falls to a mere 3.

"Sympathy for the Devil" by Kent Anderson is a book about a soldier's struggle to survive two tours of duty in Vietnam. This is the first book I have read by Mr. Anderson and was compelled to do so when I went to a reading he gave. I must say that this book was so much better that what I was expecting. This copy was signed by Kent Anderson.

Sympathy For The Devil (Hanson #1) by Kent Anderson

My fav track was Track 1 / Side 2: Sympathy for the Devil. ("Paint It Black you devils! Do Paint It Black!") E-D-A verses dropping to B for the chorus. Brilliant to play along with and attempt the extended guitar solo at the end of the track. Yes, I learnt my pitiful lead axeman skills from this track.
